"Climax-Madisonian"

With this issue of the paper the old familiar name "Climax," will cease, and next week the paper will appear under its new caption, "The Climax-Madisonian," this change being made necessary by the consolidation of The Climax and The Madisonian, the oldest and the youngest, and two of the leading papers of this city. The Climax was launched upon the journalistic sea 41 years ago by Judge French Tipton and Dr. W. G. White. During this time The Climax has had a large and varied experience, at times almost submerged beneath the billows; at other times, sailing placidly and gracefully upon the deep blue sea. But whether in sunshine or shadow, The Climax has had but one object in view: the upbuilding of Richmond, the uplifting of Madison county, and the betterment of all mankind.

About eighteen months ago the Madisonian, which joins hands with The Climax, was launched by Hon. Grant E. Lilly, one of the leading attorneys of the Madison County Bar, who had journalistic aspirations. Owing to some changes taking place in The Climax a few weeks since, Mr. Lilly had a chance to purchase an interest in the oldest paper in the city, grasped the opportunity and now becomes a joint partner with Dr. White. Hence, the consolidation of the two papers—Climax and Madisonian. B. D. Gordon, who, in connection with Dr. White, has been publishing The Climax, has sold his lease to Judge Lilly and the paper will hereafter be under the management of White & Lilly. Mr. Lilly will have editorial charge and Dr. White will, as at present, look after the business end. All the Climax force will be retained and the Madisonian plant will be moved to the Climax office on First street this week. The new management will welcome their old patrons and friends at any time, and cordially extend an invitation to the general public to call on them when needing anything in the way of printing. The old management thanks each and all for past favors, which will ever be kindly remembered, and solicits your support for the new.

Ladies' Suit, Coat and Skirt Opening.

Mr. H. M. Benas, with the Elite Garment Co., will be with us Oct. 8th, 1914, with a complete line of suits, coats and skirts—one of the very best lines ever shown in Richmond. He will take your measures, guarantee fit and workmanship and at very reasonable prices. We invite all the ladies to call and see him, and he will be pleased to show you through his line. Very Respectfully,
Hamilton Bros.

"Cous" Uncle.

The Pawhuska, Okla., Capital has the following to say of an old Madison county man, an uncle of P. B. Broadus, of this county:

One of the most popular and efficient officials who ever held public office in Oklahoma is T. M. Broadus, the present Register of Deeds of Osage county. He has served three terms in this office and was elected each time by a large majority, and so well has he performed the duties of his office that every day of his incumbency has added to the devotion of admiring friends and widened their circle. This was clearly demonstrated in the primary where he beat his opponent almost three to one, thereby showing that he is undoubtedly the choice of the Democratic voters.

The office to which Mr. Broadus aspires will, at the beginning of the next term, be consolidated with that of county clerk and be known as county clerk in the future, and it behooves the voters of this county to vote for a man who has demonstrated that he has the best interests of the people at heart.

In his present capacity he has had a tremendous amount of particular work on account of the deeding of the surplus Osage lands. All this extra work was handled by Mr. Broadus and assistants with accuracy and dispatch. Wherever he has appeared before the people as a candidate for public office, as has been the case several times, he has invariably been successful and the secret of his personal strength is to be found in the fact of his ever ready effort to please. He is the friend of everybody, therefore everybody's friend.

Mr. Joseph Arnold entertained a number of friends with a theatre party on Wednesday evening in honor of Miss June Elliott, of Deland, Florida, the guest of Mr. J. P. Simmons. After the performance at the Alhambra the guests were taken to Mr. Arnold's home on Lancaster avenue, where delightful refreshments were enjoyed.

Col. E. C. Park, who has been in bad health for the past few weeks, left Monday for his old home at Irvine, where he will imbibe freely for the next several days the life-giving waters of famous Estill Springs and imbibe the pure, fresh, mountain air of the "Free State of Estill." The Colonel's many friends hope for a speedy return of his former health.

The local Federation of Musical Clubs, including the Cecilia, the Mary Pattie, the Sherwood and Apollo have arranged to bring Mrs. Mary Dantzer here for a song recital on Friday evening, October 2, at the Normal Chapel, at 8 o'clock. The members of the Federation take this means of inviting all music lovers and their friends to enjoy the evening with them. Mrs. Dantzer has a beautiful voice and comes with the highest testimonials and it is hoped that the chapel will be filled. This recital is in conjunction with the annual meeting of the Federation and is offered free to the public.

Just Say MARY when you order Flour, and Get The Best. Pure and unbleached and made from Madison county wheat.

Help.
Because you cannot help everybody is no reason why you should fail to help somebody. There is always some one to whom we can address the kind word and extend the helping hand. The man who makes the one the excuse for not doing the other is like the man who refuses to give what he can afford because he is not able to give a large sum to a worthy cause.

CHURCH NOTES.

The Church is the best institution the world has ever known from every standpoint—moral, economic and political. It has changed the world from heathenism to civilization, from slavery to freedom, from might to right, from darkness to light, from misery to happiness. Compare the conditions prevailing in heathen lands with those of Christian countries; the forms of government in the dark ages to those of the Christian lands today.
Elder J. W. Harding, of Winchester, will preach at Kavanaugh next Sunday afternoon at 2:30. Elder Harding is 91 years old and has always been a favorite in this county where he has often preached. The membership of the Kavanaugh church are desirous of having a large attendance and cordially invite all to attend.
All the services will be held at the First Baptist church next Sunday, with preaching service every Sunday morning and evening.

There will be a called meeting of the membership of the First Baptist church directly after preaching service Sunday morning, Oct. 4th.

Last Sunday was the closing day of the contest of the Richmond Christian Sunday-school Bible class with the Bible school of the Christian church at Danville. The attendance here Sunday was 743; the offering $70.91. At Danville, 616; the offerings, $101.16. It appears that Richmond won on attendance and Danville on offerings.

Another contest is now on between Ashland, Danville, Richmond and Covington. Will Ashland win this time up for next Sunday without fail? A good stand may send Richmond to the front for good. Miss Springer sang a beautiful solo at the Sunday-school service. Her voice is a deep contralto and she is one of the most popular singers who has appeared in our city for a long time.

Sunday morning and evening next will be given up to the observance of Peace Sunday, in accordance with the proclamation of President Wilson, at the First Christian church. Rev. E. B. Barnes will have for his morning theme "The Teachings of Christ on the Subject of Peace." At night there will be a thorough discussion of the subject, "The Menace of Militant Peace." No nation can consistently pray for peace that is always increasing its expenditures for war. This nation is the best of designing men who prey on the fears of the people in the interest of war. Be sure to hear this subject. It will be one of the most important of the year.

Beginning with the first Sunday in October, all evening services at the First Christian church will begin at 7 o'clock.
Sunday was the home-coming at the historic Flat Woods church. Dinner was served on the grounds and more than a thousand persons were present. Prof. Calhoun, of the Bible College at Lexington, preached two strong sermons. About 300 women were in the Bible class and 250 in the men's class. This is one of the rural churches that is enjoying a new era of prosperity.

Rev. O. K. Marshall will preach at Mt. Zion Sunday next at 11 o'clock.
